

NO. 41—COPYRIGHT 1944 BY L. H. LARSEN

NO PART OF THE PICTURE MAY BE REPRODUCED IN ANY FORM
WITHOUT PERMISSION IN WRITING FROM THE ARTIST

Taken from an original oil painting by the noted cowboy artist and poet, L. H. "Dude" Larsen.

The painted Desert of northern Arizona, viewed from points along Highway 66, is one grand panorama of every changing shades and colors.

—PUBLISHED BY L. H. LARSEN, KANAB, UTAH—MADE IN U. S. A.—(HDY)

19965

PLACE
ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE

RHole-1813

THE PAINTED DESERT
THE ANGELS OF HEAVEN WHEN THE WORLD WAS MADE, USED THIS FOR THEIR PALETTE OF BEAUTIFUL SHADES.
THE REDS, THE BLUES, THE YELLOWS AND DELICATE GREENS,
THEY USED TO PAINT DESERTS AND MOUNTAINS AND BEAUTIFUL
AND WHEN AT LAST, THEIR WORK WAS DONE
THEY LEFT THEIR COLORS HERE TO GAZE IN THE EYES OF MANKIND.